Technical Information

Description:
The CyTOF® Spray Chamber is part of the sample introduction system installed within the heater module to desolvate and carry aerosolized sample from the nebulizer to the ICP Torch via the Injector. One end of the Spray Chamber has a Teflon adaptor that holds the Nebulizer, and the other end connects through a ball joint connector to the Torch adaptor. Argon makeup gas is supplied through the Spray Chamber side arm.